

I will become a science thinker by questioning and looking for answers.

I will use math skills to help me understand science.

I can use tools and instruments safely in Science.

I can compare lots of different things in a scientific manner and report my findings.

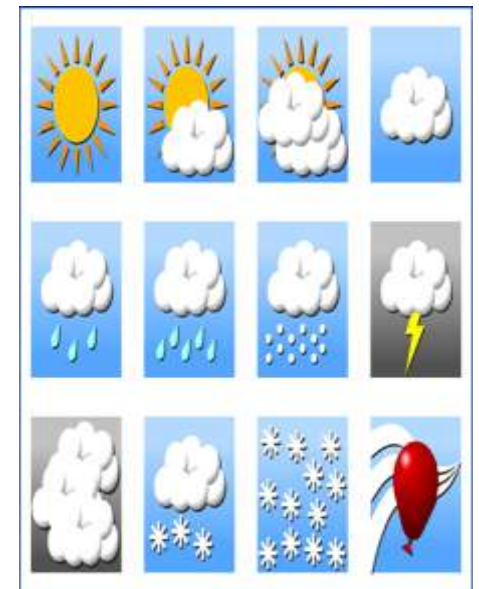

I know how to gather scientific knowledge and work like a scientist.

Georgia Performance Standard S1CS6 and S1CS7

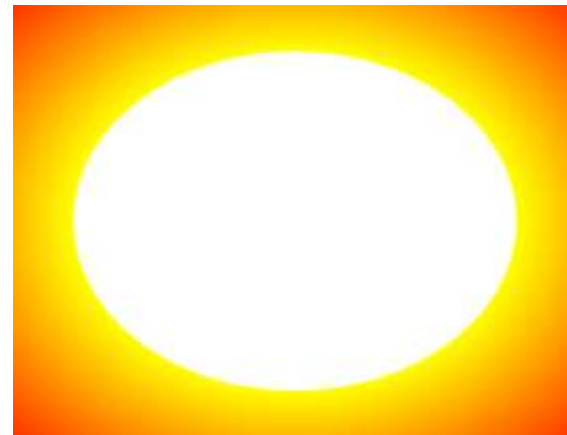

I can use data to see patterns in weather and climate.

I can observe and record changes in water caused by weather.

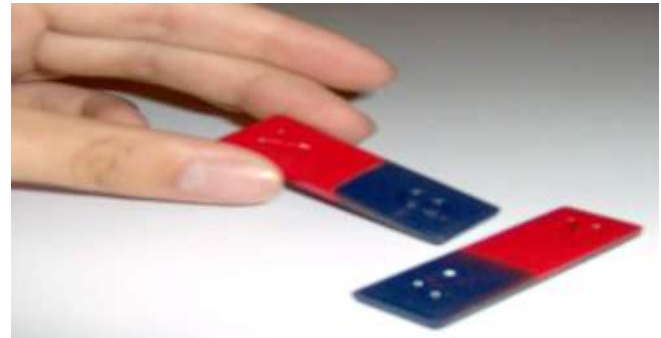

I can learn about light and sound.

Georgia Performance Standard S1P1

I know how magnets affect other magnets and objects.

I know the characteristics and basic needs of plants and animals.

Georgia Performance Standard S1L1