INTRODUCING CHARACTER TRAITS

Suppose you always smile and say hello to your friends when you see them. Don't you think they will like you? Yes, they will say that you are a friendly person. Being friendly is one trait of your character. It is a good trait.

Suppose someone is not friendly and never smiles. That is a bad trait.

Directions:

1. Look at the character traits at the bottom of the page. Decide if each is a good trait or a bad trait.
2. Cut it out and paste it where you think it belongs.

kind	selfish	not polite	likes to share
helpful	mean	never shares	happy
